

2012 SEISA Mallory / Baker Qualifiers
March 31 – April 1
Southern Yacht Club, New Orleans, LA

March 31 – April 1 Southern Yacht Club hosted the 2012 High School SEISA Mallory / Baker Qualifiers. A beautiful day Saturday on Lake Pontchartrain in New Orleans saw five schools, Deer Park from Houston, Gulfport High, St. Patrick's and St. Stanislaus College from the Mississippi Gulf Coast and Brother Martin from New Orleans complete 10 races using the new Harry A course. This was an interesting change from the usual windward / leeward course many of us are accustomed to.

On Saturday, St. Stanislaus College won both A Division and B Division securing the overall top spot and qualifying for the 2012 High School Mallory National Championships. Runner up was St. Patrick's with a 2nd in A Division and 2nd in B Division and 3rd overall went to Brother Martin with a 3rd in A Division and 4th in B Division.

Saturday afternoon the four Teams scheduled to compete for the Baker Qualifiers on Sunday dwindled down to two teams due to a shortage of competitors to make a Team Race Team. With Brother Martin and St. Stanislaus College left to compete, Brother Martin, not being in a position to attend the Baker Championship due to their final exam schedule, forfeited to St. Stanislaus College who then became the qualifying team for the 2012 High School Baker Team Race National Championships.

Many thanks to the sailors who competed in this event, Southern Yacht Club, Chris Clement, Eric Alber, Dan Zwerg, Cal Herman for running 10 great races and Yvonne Pottharst for procuring the beautiful awards presented.
