

Icebreaker Regatta Report
Chicago Yacht Club - Belmont
March 31 - April 1, 2012

3:57 PM 4-1-12

Saturday, the fleet hit the water for a prompt 945am start, and sailed the day in a light northeasterly breeze, never getting much above 5 or 6 knots, and shifting right to east all afternoon. The conditions proved very challenging for many racers, and connecting the puffs up the race course was vital to good finishes. Confusion with the finish pin plagued a few teams, who ended up with DNFs. 8 races were sailed in each division in Belmont Harbor, the last set in very light breeze. St. Ignatius finished the day in the lead with a small margin over Minnetonka and Oconomowoc.

Sunday, the sailors arrived to glass in Belmont Harbor, but soon after launching the breeze popped back up from the north and remained there the remainder of the day. The first races were sailed in under 5 knots, but the breeze soon built as afternoon approached, the final few sets with the breeze topping out around 8-10 knots. The RC was able to complete the entire rotation of 18 races in each division, squeezing the warning signal for race 18B in just under the time limit with only minutes to spare. 1 protest was heard by impartial coaches with a 3-minute justice, resulting in one DSQ. Evanston and Lake Forest Academy were disqualified for a number of B Division races for racing with sailors from other high schools. Minnetonka was able to pull ahead and extend their lead all day, finishing the regatta in 1st. Oconomowoc and St. Ignatius finished tied for 2nd with 206 points. The first tie breaker is who beat whom more – they each beat the other 18 times. The second tie breaker is who has more first place finishes – Oconomowoc won 5 races, while St. Ignatius only won 3. Therefore, Oconomowoc wins the tie-breaker and finishes the regatta in 2nd place, with St. Ignatius in 3rd. New Trier Green, with a remarkable comeback on Sunday, finished just 2 points behind them with 208.
